SELL OUT CONCERT FOR KENT YOUTH WIND ORCHESTRA AND KENT YOUTH CHOIRS

Kent Youth Wind Orchestra and Kent Youth Choirs returned for the fourth time to the Colyer-Fergusson Concert Hall in Canterbury for their sell-out Spring Concert on Saturday 8 April. Over 150 musicians aged 8 to 21 came together to perform an exciting programme of music including the Harry Potter Symphonic Suite by Williams and a medley from Disney's Aladdin.

Phill Hyde, Kent Youth Wind Orchestra Manager said: "The Kent Youth Choirs and The Kent Youth Wind Orchestra have again produced a concert of the highest standard performed in the superb Colyer Fergusson Concert Hall. The concert that was sold out for the third consecutive year has become a celebration of the talented young musicians in Kent and for this concert we were very pleased to be joined by the composer Malcolm Binney. A very appreciative audience indeed."

The orchestra, conducted by Graeme Vinall, was joined by singers from Kent Youth Choir, Kent Youth Singers, Kent County Junior Choir and Kent County Junior Singers. The choirs were managed by Liz Samson and conducted by Benjamin Rous, Karen Hill, Rose Martin and Andy Millest.

Notes to Editors

Kent Music, founded in 1948, is a registered education charity and lead partner for the music education hub in Kent. It employs peripatetic teachers to deliver instrumental and vocal teaching across the county through individual lessons, small groups and through whole class teaching in schools. The charity runs county groups and local ensembles, and the Kent Music Summer School has been held at Benenden for nearly 70 years. Kent Music is a partner in music education with Kent County Council.
