KENT YOUTH WIND ORCHESTRA AND CHOIRS COME TOGETHER FOR A CELEBRATION OF YOUTH

Following two sell-out performances, the Kent Youth Wind Orchestra and Kent Youth Choirs return to the Colyer-Fergusson Hall in Canterbury for their Spring Concert at 3pm on Saturday 8 April 2017 entitled 'A Celebration of Youth'. Over 150 young performers aged 8 to 21 will come together to perform an exciting programme of music including the Harry Potter Symphonic Suite by Williams and a medley from Disney's Aladdin.

Experienced conductor and music teacher at King's School, Rochester, Graeme Vinall will take to the podium to lead the orchestra, whilst choral conductors include Rose Martin, who sings with the Platinum Consort, The Sixteen and the Gabrieli Consort.

All are welcome – tickets are £12 (students £6) and can be ordered through the Gulbenkian Box Office online or on 01227 769075.

Notes to Editors

Kent Music, founded in 1948, is a registered education charity and lead partner for the music education hub in Kent. It employs peripatetic teachers to deliver instrumental and vocal teaching across the county through individual lessons, small groups and through whole class teaching in schools. The charity runs county groups and local ensembles, and the Kent Music Summer School has been held at Benenden for nearly 70 years. Kent Music is a partner in music education with Kent County Council.
