1. Purpose of the Role

A new and exciting opportunity to join a team of instrumental and vocal teachers, with the aim of providing high quality music tuition to children, young people and adults across Kent.

2. Background

Kent Music is building up a team of teachers in Kent who will work collectively to transform the teaching of musical instruments and singing in Kent. Our aim is that this team will make a substantial change to the numbers learning to play and their progression into groups, choirs and ensembles. Kent Music will support instrumental teachers with a comprehensive programme of professional development and provide time for teachers to reflect on their practice and prepare for their lessons.

3. About Kent Music

Kent Music is a music education charity and the lead partner for the Music Education Hub for Kent. The organisation is driven by a core belief that music changes lives.

It does this through the provision of instrumental & vocal tuition in schools, music groups and centres in local areas, community music programmes, Orchestra ONE and advanced level programmes such as the County Youth Orchestra, County Choirs & Wind Orchestra and the annual Kent Music Summer School.

As the lead partner for the Music Education Hub, Kent Music works closely with partners and schools to: co-ordinate and deliver high quality professional development for all music practitioners across Kent; support schools to embed a culture of the arts; be an innovative leader that facilitates and provides inclusive and accessible music making for all children and young people.

4. Our Values

- Anticipating, valuing and supporting diversity and difference
- Maintaining high expectations for all learners and staff

- Understanding the needs of children and young people
- Reducing the barriers to engagement
- Keeping creativity at the heart of our thinking
- Embracing openness, collaboration and partnership

5. Main Duties

- 5.1 Teach students of all ages individually and in small groups and in a whole class to a high quality, ensuring good foundation of technique from the beginning
- 5.2 Ensure that learning is effective, well planned and enjoyable and that students make good progress including preparing pupils for examinations as and when appropriate
- 5.3 Promote and ensure good behaviour among pupils and safeguard their health and welfare
- 5.4 Make recruitment a priority by delivering instrument demonstrations to classes, assemblies, and parent's evenings and open days
- 5.5 Be willing to tutor or lead ensembles in a weekly or residential setting with local or county groups including arrangement of basic ensemble parts
- 5.6 Be personable, enthusiastic, friendly and professional. Build good relationships with internal and external staff and schools as well as acting as an advocate for Kent Music
- 5.7 Encourage all students to progress to music centres, ensembles and county wide ensembles
- 5.8 Engage in Kent Music's professional development opportunities, mentoring and quality assurance process
- 5.9 Manage a work schedule, keep accurate registers, update pupils' practice books, write annual reports to parents and communicate to Kent Music and parents in a timely manner
- 5.10 Attend staff meetings when required
- 5.11 Other duties as required by your line manager

Kent Music values diversity and particularly welcomes applications from under-represented groups of the community.

To address barriers we will consider reasonable adjustment and access requirements before, during and throughout the application and interview process. Please alert us in your application to anything we can do to make your process as accessible as possible.

8. Safer Recruitment Statement

Kent Music is committed to the safeguarding of all its learners and staff. Safeguarding is a priority with arrangements in place to ensure learners feel and are safe during Kent Music activities.

The learner experience and individual achievement are paramount, and safeguarding initiatives are developed to impact positively upon this. Kent Music ensures safeguarding legislation and guidance are adhered to and taken into account when developing and revising policies, procedures, and associated arrangements. Health and Safety arrangements are in place to ensure adherence to current legislation and guidance.

Applicants will be subject to recruitment and selection procedures designed to emphasise Kent Music's commitment to the safeguarding of its learners and staff. The procedures include questioning at interview stage, verification of appropriate qualifications, acquiring references, and necessary safety checks.

Kent Music has a 'Designated Safeguarding Lead' responsible for child protection, supporting staff in carrying out their safeguarding duties, and working closely with other services. Kent Music has appropriate policies and procedures in place to deal effectively with child protection and safeguarding issues, together with recording and monitoring processes.

It is a condition of employment that all staff are trained to a level appropriate to their safeguarding responsibilities. Kent Music's commitment to safeguarding is paramount to the success of the learners. Kent Music's trustees, Senior Leadership Team, and the safeguarding working group will continue to keep abreast of developments in this area and implement arrangements to continually improve the safety and awareness of its learners, staff and volunteers.
